
POLITICS and the so-called "spoils system" whereby the winners hand out jobs as plums has long been a traditional part of the two-party picture in this country.

It matters little which party happens to be in power. The same formula is followed with either the donkey or elephant emblem. Party workers must be compensated. And that is that.

Basically there is probably nothing wrong with the system, especially now that the spoils system has been cut down considerably by the inroads made by civil service. Over the long haul it sort of evens out.

But somehow we have always felt that handing out judicial plums by the party in power has a tendency to weaken the basic governmental framework. There should be something special or non-partisan about judges, in our opinion.

We have always had a wistful feeling that judges should be a little above the petty antics that are so much a part of politics. We have always hoped that awarding of judicial robes would be in a category and that it would take more than being a good Democrat or Republican party worker to earn the robes.

-o-

BUT BY THIS TIME, after being exposed to party politics as long as we have, we recognize that we have been dreaming.

Judicial plums have become the biggest part of the party patronage system. Shucks, if party leaders didn't have the judge appointments to hand out, it would be rough on the parties.

Although we don't like it, we go along with it. And, surprisingly, most of the judges who have been appointed strictly on a party-basis have turned into pretty fair jurists when they got on the bench.

But it still doesn't keep us from wishing there was a way to reward party workers without detracting from the judicial arm. We would like to see, for example, judges "promoted" more often, regardless of party affiliation.

-o-

THIS WAS BROUGHT to mind by the most recent appointment made by Governor Pat Brown to the superior court bench in this county.

The retirement of Superior Judge William Jacka from office left a vacancy to be filled by Governor Brown.

Gov. Brown has appointed John Racanelli, a Sunnyvale attorney, to the post.

No doubt Racanelli will be an excellent judge. Undoubtedly he has more qualifications than that he was county chairman for Brown's re-election campaign

Enrollment in elementary schools to increase 1000

Opening day enrollment on September 10 in the schools of the Campbell Union (elementary) School District will show an increase of more than 1000 over opening day last year, district officials report.

Enrollment will start at 11,100, and climb to 11,302 by midyear in 19 schools - two new this September. Opening day enrollment last year was 10,039.

Several promotions and transfers of administrators will bring new faces to some of the schools. Here is the list of principals, vice principals, and their last assignments in cases where they have transferred:

Moorpark-John Duncan, principal.

San Tomas-Jack Fischer, principal.

Hazelwood-Duane Beaubien, principal.

Hamilton-Claude Walsh, principal, was vice principal at Campbell and Cherry Lane.

Rosemary-George Ingram, principal, was vice principal at Blackford.

Cypress-Tony Van Laarhoven, principal. Mrs. Velma Blyther, vice principal, taught seventh grade at Cy-

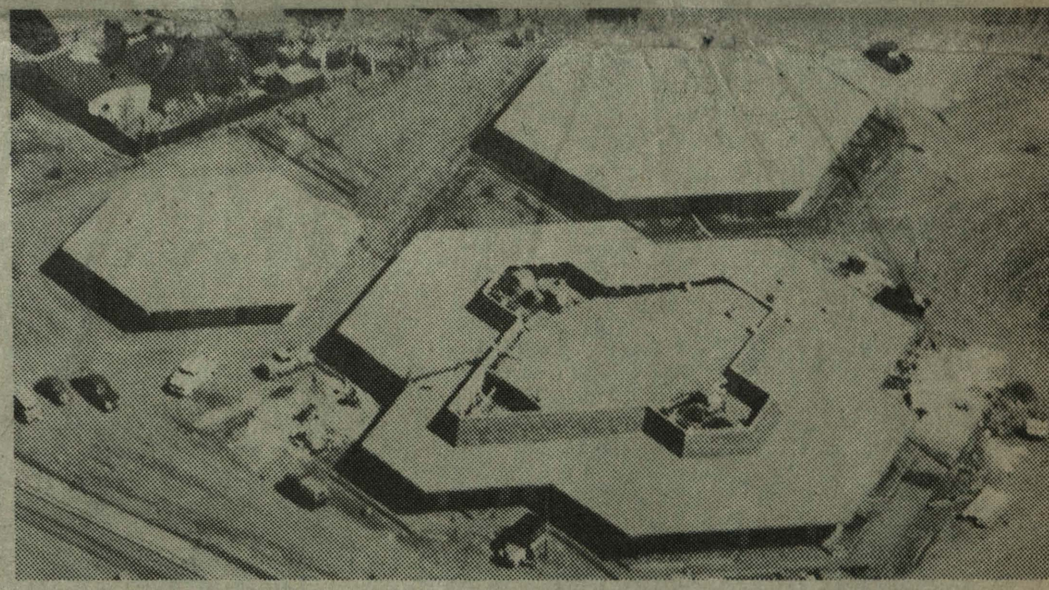
PODIUM PITCHES--These four gentlemen took the same podium at a recent City Council meeting to make three separate requests of the city fathers. Only one of the pleas was unsuccessful. Left to right: EDWARD A. PANELLI, representing the West Valley Junior College. The college asked for waiver of storm drain fees. Although the council voted 3-1 for waiving, four votes were needed, so the appeal lost: TED REGAS, highway committee chairman of the C. of C., asked for a public hearing on the question of blocking Rincon and Latimer Avenues by the expressway. The hearing was set for September 14; PAUL LANDWEHR, secretary-manager of the C. of C. who joined with DICK DICKASON (right) in asking for financial aid for the champion Pony League team. They got $500.



NEW CAPRI SCHOOL--Here is an aerial view of the new Capri School, one of the two new schools that will open in the Campbell Union (elementary) School District on September 10. It is located at the end of Virginia Ave. near Steinway. The other new school is Castlemont on Payne Ave. The aerial shot shows the novel architectural design of Capri which allows the maximum use of facilities.

On service station

City Council gets color conscious

A 7 1/2-inch blue stripe on the canopy of a proposed service station on Millich Ave. near the "square loop" of Hamilton-San Tomas expressway almost blocked approval of the plans of the station at a special City Council meeting Monday.

After more than an hour of discussion, the plans and blue stripe were approved by 2-1 vote of the council

Campbell firemen 'adopt' city in Mexico

There is a sister city of Campbell in Mexico today, even if the relationship has not yet acquired the official recognition of the governing bodies of the two cities.

But, as far as the fire departments, Campbell, Calif., and Madero, Mexico, are concerned, a family relationship has existed since early this year.

Since February, the Campbell Fire Fighters Association has expanded this family relationship to something far more than the ordinary concept of a sister-city arrangement. It has become more of a working "big brother" or "foster parent" attitude than just "sisters."

Literally the "adoption "papers were "filed" by the Campbell Fire Fighters Association in April for "Cuerpo de Bomberos de Ciudad Madero," the fire department of the Mexican city.

And since the "adoption," the "foster parents have really worked at their job. And their 'offspring" has benefitted materially from it.

LETTER RECEIVED

It all started early this year when Chief George Maxwell received a letter from Cecil H. Knight, technical advisor of Madero, Mexico. Knight requested any literature on fire prevention, office outlines, school manuals, training procedures compiled by Campbell's Fire Department that could be made available to the south-of-the-border city.

Chief Maxwell dug up the material and sent it on its way.

A letter of appreciation followed from Knight. The letter also described how inadequate was the equipment of the "Cuerpo de Bomberos de Ciudad Madero".

The why of the YES

The Campbell Press urges a "Yes" vote on September 15 for the $10 million bond issue for the Campbell Union High School District; for a $5 million bond issue and $3 million state aid authorization for Campbell Union (elementary) school district; and for a $1,900,000 bond issue for the Moreland district.

In our opinion there is no other way to provide the necessary educational facilities. Without the districts being bonded to five per cent of their assessed valuation, they will not be eligible for state aid.

The thought of these districts trying to finance their operations without state help is too horrible to contemplate for a taxpayer of our standing or yours.

This week E.M. (Doc) Arends, president of the high school district board of education, issued a statement that we think covers the situation pretty well.

Arends emphasized how the district has gained 600 per cent in enrollment in 10 years from 1800 students to 10,000 to show the need for the $10 million bond issue on September 15.

He explains in the argument favoring the bond issue that will accompany the sample ballots that will be mailed to voters that the purpose of the bond issue is to keep the district eligible for state school building aid and that the approval will not increase the tax rate.

Arends statement follows:

"In the ten years since 1954, enrollment in the Campbell Union High School District has increased almost 600 percent from 1800 students to more than 10,000 students. At the same time, the number of high schools serving the district has increased from one to six.

"Enrollment continues to increase. Even if influx of new families into the district ceased altogether, high school enrollment would continue to increase, because the youngsters are already here. They are in the elementary schools of the high school district. By 1967 high school enrollment will be at least 12,217, and high school No. 7 will be needed. By 1970 high school enrollment will be at least 14,400, and high school No. 8 will be needed.

"The most advantageous way for the district to finance its building needs is to continue on the State Aid plan. Only districts which are bonded to full legal capacity of 5 percent of assessed valuation are eligible. They then can borrow from the state under a debt retirement formula which keeps the district tax rate down. Repayment--both bonded indebtedness and the state loan--can not be at a rate requiring a tax higher than 40 cents on the $100.

"The purpose of the proposed $10,000,000 bond issue is to keep our district bonded to capacity, so we can continue on the State Aid plan. Bonds will be sold only as needed to keep the district bonded to capacity.

"District building program indebtedness is now being retired with a 40-cent tax. That tax will not be increased if the $10,000,000 bond issue is approved, nor will it be decreased if the bonds are not approved. A "yes" vote on the bond issue is strongly recommended as the best way to provide the new schools soon to be needed".

Elementary

Double sessions could become a necessity for 8,000 students of Campbell Union School District within the next five years, when 4,000 additional elementary students must be housed besides the 11,302 to be enrolled this school year.

The alternative is the $5 million bond issue that the district is asking voter approval on September 15.

To make sure the school doors can open to give a full day's education to every Campbell Union School District child old enough to be ready for one, citizens of the district are urged to go to the polls September 15 to put their opinion where it counts-on their ballots.

Campbell Union (elementary) School District is asking voter approval on two issues: a) approval of a $5,000,000 bond issue to bring the district to full legal bonding capacity (5% of assessed valuation). Approval of this measure is required by California state law in order to qualify for loans under the State School Building Aid Plan.

b) approval of a $3,000,000 state aid loan. Voter approval is required so the district can continue to benefit from the State School Building Aid Plan.

We think the following argument that appears with the sample ballot for the elementary district bond issue covers the situation:

"The Campbell Union School District's pupil enrollment has been and is expected to continue increasing an average of 800 pupils per year. This means an additional 4,000 children in classrooms with a full educational program and to stay off double sessions. These funds are strictly for buildings, sites and equipment.

"Because of an existing California State Law, the passage of these issues will NOT change the tax rate for building purposes."

in 1962.

But we would have much preferred to see Judge Richard W. (Dusty) Rhodes "promoted" to the superior court by Brown.

(We even suggested the "promotion" in a letter to the governor. And we received a nice letter from one of Pat's assistants acknowledging our suggestion and assuring us that Dusty would receive all possible consideration.)

In our opinion Judge Rhodes has done an outstanding job on the municipal bench of the Los Gatos-Campbell-Saratoga court. We sincerely felt that he deserved to be moved up to the superior court. We believe the entire county would benefit by having a man of his proved calibre serving as Superior Judge.

But Dusty is not a wheel-horse. As a matter of fact, although we have known him a long time, we don't even know his party affiliation.

The party label has always seemed unimportant when it comes to dispensing justice.

-o-

NEIGHBORHOODS and their feuds play a very important part in the life of a medium-sized city such as Campbell.

This was brought to mind recently by a call from one of our readers was was upset over the actions of a group of youngsters in one particular section of the community.

As an old pro in the operating of a community newspaper, we have learned that neighborhood feuds must be settled by the parties concerned. There is no legislation or editorials that can help such situations.

Any feuds are generally custom-made.

In one section of town, one unkempt yard will upset the residents.

In another area, barking and meandering dogs, meowing and messy cats, will set the stage for an uproar.

In another part, an impromptu car-repair jamboree will cause an explosion.

And in another neighborhood, it will be free-wheeling kids.

But most all towns have 'em. Neighborhood feuds, we mean.

And they will continue to exist as long as there are dogs, cats, yards, cars and kids.... And people with different likes and dislikes.

Come to think of it, without those ingredients there wouldn't be much use for a town in the first place.

But the ingredients are okay.

It's the mixing of 'em that does the damage.

That sometimes happens in a chem lab also.

And then comes the explosion.

members present. The absence of Councilman Ralph Doetsch and Ed Rogers complicated the balloting. Mayor Charles Rose had to hand the gavel to Councilman Bill Smeed in order to get a second for Councilman Bob McElroy's motion for approval.

Prior to the voting the three councilmen became involved in a discussion over the merits of having blue and white stripes on the canopy. McElroy, who had delayed action on the plans at the previous meeting because he felt the looks of the station could be improved by doing something with the canopy was not satisfied with the amended plans that only called for the use of duraply to cover the steel canopy.

He thought the overall plans of the station were attractive but felt the flat canopy spoiled the looks. And he was particularly concerned over the striping on the top, which Standard Oil officials claimed was necessary for company identification.

Smeed agreed that the striping detracted from the attractiveness of the station but he questioned whether the Council had the right to control the painting. City Attorney Joe Bonacina agreed that the council was going a little afield when painting entered the picture.

Mayor Rose, on the other hand, maintained that the plans for the service station were far superior to any such operation in town. He thought the plans should be approved as they stood.

NO SECOND

To bring the matter to a head, Smeed moved to approve the plans with the condition that duraply be used to cover the steel on the canopy. But his motion died for lack of a second.

McElroy pointed out that, in his opinion, duraply would serve no useful purpose as it would be painted the same as steel. He then moved to approve the plans as submitted, inasmuch as the roof line could not be improved. That's when Rose had to step down to second the motion. And it was passed 2-1 with Smeed dissenting.

OTHER ACTIONS

Because of the abbreviated City Council final action on the adoption of the ordinance setting up the local improvement district for Hamilton Ave. extension was held over until September 14. The council, however, took all the preliminary steps to establish the LID at the public hearing on the issue. The council was advised by the bonding attorney's representative that it was better to have a full council present for the final action.

No written protests were filed but Herbert Bykowski, property owner on Hamilton, asked Myron Hawk, public works director, to explain just what value the improvement district would be to him. He indicated that he felt he was not benefitting.

The council also continued until September 14 the appeal of Mr. and Mrs. Milton Howe from Planning Commission ruling. The Howes were granted a use permit for a nursery school by the commission with the condition that they dedicate a portion of the street. They felt that this was an unfair condition and appealed the ruling.

As it takes a four-fifths vote to overrule a commission decision, the council had no choice but to continue the hearing until September 14, the next regular meeting.

The council also approved the request of the building department that the leaky roof of the city hall be repaired. However, the council directed W. L. Morser, building inspector, to see if both bidders on the job, Adamac Roofing and Ada Roofing, had both been given the same specifications. One bid was $240 and one was $180.

Blocked streets to get hearing

A determined effort to get as many interested citizens as possible to attend the hearing on September 14 by the City Council on the proposed closing of Rincon and Latimer avenues was being made by civic leaders this week.

The Council set the hearing at the request of the Chamber of Commerce which has instigated a movement to see if the San Tomas Expressway plans can be amended to allow Rincon and Latimer to become through streets instead of being blocked by the expressway.

'If enough sentiment in favor of opening the streets is expressed by the public, the council members have indicated they will endeavor to have county officials re-examine the situation.

COUNTY GETS NEW SEALER

Robert W. Horger has been appointed Santa Clara County Sealer of Weights and Measures by County Executive Howard W. Campen effective October 1.

What does he want to be when he grows up?

A fireman . . . what else! No matter what you tell him about the nature of the world in which he will grow up, he is much more impressed by what he sees and experiences right now. With the major part of his day spent in school it follows that adequate school facilities are second in importance only to his home life.

Most school systems make good use of sound financing through municipal bonds to meet these growing needs.

Municipal bonds cater to taxpayers. They distribute the cost over long periods to keep taxes reasonable. They offer minimum interest rates due to highly competitive bidding.

Bank of America and its associated bond dealers are an important source of funds for new schools and classrooms, bidding on virtually all municipal bonds offered for sale in California.

Moreland holds orientation for kindergarten

Parents of Kindergarten students in the Moreland School District are invited to attend parent orientation programs in the individual elementary schools on the evening of September 3. The program is designed to aid both the child and the parents in becoming acquainted with the new school experience.

Kindergarten registration should be completed this week, preferably before the Thursday evening meetings. The School District offices and the school offices will be closed all day Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, September 7, 8, and 9. Registration on the first day of school will be extremely time consuming and difficult. Proof of birthdate and Polio Immunization documents are required when registering Kindergarten children.

Seventh-Day Adventist School completes addition to plant

A two-story structure under construction for several months will open its doors on September 8 at the West Valley Elementary School, Rincon Ave., Campbell.

The new addition consists of four classrooms and the added facilities will accommodate all who want to attend, says Elder J.D. Bolejack, pastor of the Campbell Seventh-Day Adventist Church, and coordinator for the program.

Pastor Bolejack said that the present structures were inadequate to accommodate the increased enrollment. The eight-grade school has rooms for arts and crafts and home economics.

A gymnasium addition is planned for the future.

The school is operated jointly by the Campbell, Los Gatos and Cambrian Park Seventh-Day Adventists Churches.

St. Lucy's opens Sept. 8

St. Lucy's Catholic School, 2352 Winchester Blvd., Campbell, will hold registration on Tuesday, September 8, with classes to begin the same day. Sister Michael Marie, SND, announces 525 students are expected this year in grades one through eight. Sister Lucy Julie, SND, is the newly appointed Sister Superior of the Convent.

Couple go to Tahoe for wedding trip

Newlyweds Mr. and Mrs. Harry William Kehn Jr. are making their first home in Campbell following their marriage in the First Methodist Church recently. The bride is the former Miss Shirley Yvonne Dislevy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jake Robert Dislevy of San Jose. The bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Harry W. Kehn Sr., of Livonia, Michigan.

For her wedding, Shirley was attired in the traditional gown of white silk organza trimmed with lace on the bodice and entrain skirt. Her elbow-length veil was secured by a crown of pearlized orange blossoms and the bridal bouquet was a cascade arrangement of roses and chrysanthemums centered with a white orchid.

Preceding the bride to the altar were the Misses Marietta Lee Kehn of San Francisco, maid of honor; Leilani Hanrahan and Margaret Kehn of Livonia, Michigan, bridesmaids. They were dressed alike in aqua floor-length dresses of chiffon over taffeta, with headpieces of aqua fabric bows enhanced with petal veils. They carried bouquets of yellow spider chrysanthemums.

William Pewitt of Santa Clara was the best man and Donald Dislevy, brother of the bride, was the usher.

Following the ceremony they greeted their guests at a reception held at the Fireside Room of the church. A buffet dinner in the home of the bride's parents followed. The young couple left for a wedding trip to Lake Tahoe and are now established in Campbell.

The new Mrs. Kehn is a graduate of Campbell High School while her husband was graduated from Cooley High School, Detroit, Mich.

THAT FEMININE TOUCH

By

Dolores Keywood

If you're one of those women who puts things away for special occasions, you may find you will never use many of these items as they will be out of style or in the case of perfumes, they will eventually lose their beautiful fragrance.

Whether or not it is a special occasion, you will feel very special and even more beautiful if you use perfume. And, you will find that you have a different effect on the people around you.

The scents you use should match so that one doesn't overpower the other or they don't clash to create an undesirable odor.

Perfume, dusting powder, cologne, bath oil and soap, whenever possible, should be of the same fragrance.

When washing your lingerie, add a few drops of perfume to the rinse water and you'll not only feel and smell more luxurious when you wear them, but will serve as a sachet in your dresser drawers.

For that final touch, add a few drops of perfume to a quart of warm water after washing your hair, and use this for your last rinse.

The stronger fragrances are strictly for evening wear and for the sophisticated exotic woman. Never wear the heavier scents during the day. A lighter, woodsy fragrance is better during business hours. Although you want to be enveloped in a lovely fragrance, those around you should never have to gasp for breath because of your overpowering "presence".

When applying perfume, remember to apply it to the pulse centers and never to your clothing.

So if Uncle Ullyses or Cousin Carlotta gave you a bottle of perfume you've been dying to use when the time is right, break open that seal and get with it. Feel more beautiful and more feminine and give those around you a treat.

Readers are invited to send in questions to Miss Keywood, c/o The Campbell Press, which will be answered in subsequent columns.

Nurse Refresher course begins

A twelve week Nurse Refresher course will begin at Santa Clara County Hospital, September 21st, Nursing Education Director Mrs. Mineola Pollock, R. N., has announced.

The course is designed to up-date the knowledge and skills of Registered Nurses with California licensure who have been inactive for at least five years, Mrs. Pollock said. The Refresher program is aimed at reducing the perennial shortage of nurses in this area. A considerable reservoir of inactive R.N.'s is known to be present in Santa Clara County, and it is from this pool that Refresher students are drawn.

The County Hospital's Refresher program features a $15.00 per week during the eight-week advanced course immediately following. Hours are 9:30 a.m. to 2:30 p.m. weekdays, with weekends and holidays off, thus avoiding interference with the students' home responsibilities.

New opera group auditioning "Molly Brown"

The West Valley Light Opera Association, the newest theatrical organization in Santa Clara County, has received the approval of presentation rights for "The Unsinkable Molly Brown".

"We are very gratified that our group was accepted," reported James Corey, secretary-treasurer for the group, "because the show has been produced only twice before on the West Coast. Both presentations were in the Los Angeles area by professional organizations."

JUST MARRIED

ALL ABOARD—Newlyweds Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Yoskowitz (Margaret Mallman) prepare to leave the First Methodist Church of Campbell following their wedding recently. Their transportation is a 1926 Studebaker belonging to the bridegroom's mother, Mrs. Ruth Yoskowitz. Photograph by Jerome of San Jose.

Blue and White color scheme for Mallman - Yoskowitz nuptials

Three hundred friends and relatives attended the formal afternoon wedding of Miss Margaret Ann Mallman and Leo Kenneth Yoskowitz at the First Methodist Church of Campbell recently. Rev. William Gould officiated at the double ring ceremony.

Both the bride and bridegroom, who are graduates of Blackford High School, have many local friends. Margaret is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard W. Mallman, 4980 Augusta Way, San Jose, and the groom is the son of Mrs. Ruth Yoskowitz, 1259 Cordelia Ave. San Jose.

For her wedding day, Margaret chose a formal white gown of silk organza with a ruffled tiered train. Two white organza roses enhanced the waist and sequins covered the appliques on the skirt and bodice. Her bouquet of white carnations and orchids was bordered with ivy.

The three sisters of the bride, the Misses Jane, Patsy and Judy Mallman and Miss Lois Fatt of Berkeley, were the bridal attendants. They chose powder blue organza gowns and carried white carnations tipped with blue. Little Judy Mallman, the flower girl, was dressed in a floor length frock of white organza and carried a basket of carnations and pink rose buds.

Bill Yoskowitz stood with his brother as best man, and the ushers were Bob Yoskowitz, another brother, Bill Parks and Ricky Mallman, brother of the bride.

A four tiered wedding cake was cut by the newlyweds at the reception held in the Church social hall following the nuptials. The young couple left for a wedding trip to Lake Tahoe and will make their first home in San Jose.

Guests from out of town included the bride's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Jane of San Gabriel and several aunts and uncles including Mr. and Mrs. Robert Cross of San Gabriel, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Tyrell of Temple City, Mrs. Daryl Ward, Glendora, and Mrs. Robert Nicholls, of Covina, Calif.

ON PARADE--The fire department of the City of Madero, Tamps, Mexico, has been "adopted" by the Campbell Fire Fighters Association. Through the efforts of the local association, the Madero fire department has received much needed equipment. Pictured are members of the Cuerpo de Bomberos de Ciudad Madero taking part in a parade recently in that city.

MORE ABOUT

Campbell Firemen "adopt" Mexican city

ADOPTION

On April 6, the adoption took place. The Campbell Fire Fighters Association then officially took over the project of helping their southern neighbors.

Since that time the association has made five separate shipments of usable fire equipment items to the City of Madero. And shipments will continue.

Although spearheaded by the local association, the project has received the endorsement of neighboring fire departments as well as many allied business firms.

The list of contributors is long:

Los Gatos Fire Department donated used lights, nozzles and various other equipment.

Western Fire Equipment Company gave turnour boots and other items.

C.A. Hoffman Co. donated $600 worth of coats.

Roberts & Brune Co. contributed six hydrants valued at $900. (The hydrants will be shipped as soon as funds can be raised to defray the shipping costs. The need is great for the hydrants in Madero.)

The Campbell Fire Fighters Association, under the direction of Assistant Chief Walter Silberbauer, has allocated $350 for the purchase of 20 new helmets, two dozen gloves, and goggles and flash lights for each member of the Madero "Bomberos".

CITY OF 60,000

Madero is a city of 60,000 in Tamaulipas (Tamps), Mexico, near Tampico on the Gulf of Mexico. The fire department has seven paid firemen and 19 volunteers. It has three small pieces of equipment consisting of one jeep (with a water tank attached), one Dodge truck (with a water tank) and one Ford pickup. This is the equipment with which the department safeguards the community.

The city is located in a farming area and the city's budget does not allow much advancement for the fire department. An oil refinery located a few miles away from Madero has its own department, another factor that has kept the Madero unit from flourishing.

GRATITUDE

But Ciudad Madero has shown its gratitude in many ways to the "ciudad norteamericana de Campbell, California y a la Asociacion de Bomberos de Estados Unidos".

Many letters of appreciation have been received and an engraved silver tray has also been given to the local association. The engraving in Spanish as translated reads, "To Our Firemen Friends of Campbell from firemen of C. Madero, Tamps, 1964."

"El Mundo", the daily newspaper of Tampico that circulates in Madero with a banner headline and the main news story of June 27 issue described the adoption by Campbell of "Cuerpo de Bomberos de C. Madero.".

PROUD OF EFFORTS

Members of the Campbell Fire Fighters Association are proud of their achievement so far and plan to continue to keep in close contact with the Madero fire department. They hope to bring the relationship even closer in the future.

"It has been our hope," an association spokesman points out, " that we can be of some help in building the morale of the members of the department. The furnishing of equipment we feel has also made their job safer."

"It is our feeling that we have built a great friendship between our city and the Ciudad Madero."

And there is plenty of evidence now on hand to bear this out.

ADOPTED--Pictured are members of the fire department of the City of Madero, Tamps, Mexico. The department badly in need of equipment in order to serve the city of 60,000 has been helped by the Campbell Fire Fighters Association. The local association has officially adopted the Madero department. Five shipments of usable fire fighting equipment have been sent to the Madero department.

ON CAPITOL HILL

with "Charlie" Gubser

Though I have some reservations regarding the bill which recently passed the House for the purpose of delaying the implementation of sions on reapportionment, and would have preferred a different approach, the delay was essential for the protection of minority rights, particularly in the State of California.

On three occasions the voters of California have turned down the system of apportionment on the basis of "one person - one vote" which the Supreme Court decisions would impose upon our state. They clearly registered their opposition to a system of reapportionment which would turn control of both houses of the Legislature over to Los Angeles County. With all due respect to the Supreme Court, it is not in the spirit of democracy to allow Judicial interpretation to force a system upon a citizenry which has gone to the ballot box and turned that system down. If this is a "government by the people", the ultimate sovereignty must lie with the people and not with a Court of nine men-howeverinininininir men--however distinguished they may be.

One of the occasions when the voters spoke out against reapportioning the State Senate in much the same manner as today's Supreme Court decisions would require, was the General election of 1948.

On October 29, 1948, at Merced, California, the Governor of our State eloquently spoke the sentiment of Californians which were to be expressed a few days later at the polls. The Governor said:

"Many California counties are far more important in the life of the State than their population bears to the entire population of the State. It is for this reason that I have never been in favor of restricting the representation in the Senate to a strictly population basis.

"It is the same reason that the Founding Fathers of our country gave balanced representation to the States of the Union--equal representation in one house and proportionate representation based on population in the other.

"Moves have been made to upset the balanced representation in our State, even though it served us well and is strictly in accord with American tradition and the pattern of our National Government.

"There was a time when California was completely dominated by boss rule. The liberal election laws and legislative reapportionment of the system have liberated us from such domination. Any weakening of the laws would invite a return to boss rule which we are now happily rid of.

"Our State has made almost unbelieveable progress under our present system of legislative representation. I believe we should keep it."

The man who was Governor of California in 1948 and spoke these words is today the Chief Justice of the United States Supreme Court, the man who handed down the reapportionment decisions--the Honorable Earl Warren!!

Thieves force vending machine

Burglars ransacked the offices of the U-Haul Ready Mix and Rock Co., 1050 Camden Avenue, August 26, making off with $32 in change obtained from the cigarette machine. According to a report from the Campbell Police Department, the thieves gained entry by forcing a screen of a rear window. Desk drawers and shelves were ransacked, but nothing else of value was taken.

DANCE CLASSES

All-stars break all records in win

World Champions...all-the-way!

Campbell-Moreland Pony League all-stars' won the world series in San Diego Saturday afternoon to top a record-breaking performance of 18 consecutive tournament wins.

Prior to winning the world title Saturday, the world champions had won the district, area, sectional, regional and divisional crowns without tasting a single defeat. No other team in the history of Pony League has achieved such a record!

The local all-stars officially won the world crown on Saturday afternoon when they defeated Gadsen, Alabama, 8-2. But the game that will go down in Pony League history was the marathon first world series game on Wednesday night when C-M won 4-1, also from Gadsen, in 16 innings.

In this encounter, the longest game in Pony League world series play, Vaughn Takaha smashed a homerun with two men aboard at 2:30 in the morning to bring the 4 1/2 hour contest to a close.

Campbell-Moreland played again on Thursday. Mark Taku pitched a one-hit, 5-0 shutout to defeat Paducah, Kentucky.

WEDNESDAY

Campbell-Moreland came from behind in the first game of the world series in the seventh inning, the final frame of a regulation contest when Ted Campbell brought home Mark Taku on an infield single to tie the score at 1-1. Taku had singled to open the inning, had gone to second on a sacrifice and to third on a passed ball.

And the 1-1 deadlock stood until Takaha came through with his homer nine innings later. Tom Stanford relieved Ted Campbell on the mound after nine innings to get the win.

Seven new Pony League records were established in the endurance contest: Most hits in a single game..Ed Roberts of Gadsen, 5; Most strikeouts by one team, 25 by the Gadsen hurlers; Most strikeouts by two teams, 43; 25 by Gadsen; 17 by C-M (Campbell and Stanford); Left on base, one team, 16, left on base, two teams, 29; longest game, 16 innings and 4 1/2 hours time elapsed.

THURSDAY

Compared to the previous night's battle, the game against Paducah, Ky., on Thursday was a breather. The locals collected five hits to Paducah's one in winning 5-0.

C-M scored once in the third inning and twice in both the fourth and sixth stanzas. Taku struck out 12. Bobby Rodriguez found his batting eye and with his single and double batted in three of the Campbell-Moreland runs.

SATURDAY

In the big one on Saturday, Campbell-Moreland turned back Gadsen, Ala., 8-2. Ted Campbell and Tom Stanford shared the pitching chores.

Stanford pitched almost five innings of shutout ball after he had come in to relieve the tiring Campbell in the third. Campbell has a record of 10-0 in tournament play.

Stanford was also mighty handy with the bat on Saturday. He slammed a homer over the center-field fence in the fifth with two on to gain the insurance runs that were needed.

Mike Ucci also banged a two-run homer in the contest while Kent McLain, who was behind the plate in every contest, collected two singles and a double in the final game.

In winning the world series, the Campbell team became the first western division outfit to win the national crown in four years.

The world champions were welcomed home Sunday afternoon by a crowd of enthusiastic supporters including Mayor Charles Rose, Councilman Ralph Doetsch, Bill Smeed, Bob McElroy and other civic leaders.

A banquet honoring the world champions has been scheduled in the near future.

Burglars take men's hats

Someone with a liking for men's dress felt hats, stole four of them from Jeffer's Mens and Boys Store, 241 E. Campbell Ave., August 27. Campbell Police reported that a screen was removed from a rear window which was protected by security bars. The culprit reached in and removed the hats as well as several pairs of boy's gray sweat pants.

The pants were found in the driveway and one hat was recovered on the roof of the building. The hats are valued at $24.
